Some confessions to tap into God's mercy

God has a plan for my life – according to Jeremiah 29:11.

God is always leading me – on a road of triumph and victory – according to 2 Corinthians 2:14.

I understand what will happen in the future – because the Holy Spirit tells me things to come – according to John 16:13.

The Lord will work out His Plan for my life – “For your faithful love, o Lord, endures forever. (Psalm 138:8 NLT)

Money continually flows into my hands – all my financial needs are always met – according to Philippians 4:19.

I understand what the Holy Spirit wants me to do – according to Romans 8:27.

Jesus healed me at Calvary – the Father God sees me completely well – because that is what Jesus bought for me.

Therefore, I see Myself well - I am the healed resisting sickness - in Jesus' name - according to Isaiah 53:4-5, Matthew 8:16-17, 1 Peter 2:24, Psalm 103:2-3.

The angels of the Lord protect me and my family in all of our ways – according to Psalm 91:11 and Psalm 34:7.

He is doing this for me – even though I can never deserve it – just because He is merciful.
